

Contributions at Work

Our financial contributors and sponsors help the San Diego Blood Bank make a difference in life every day. Financial donations enable the blood bank to secure new hope for premature babies, people with cancer and leukemia, organ transplant recipients, and accident victims.

Whether you chose to donate money, donate a vehicle, name the San Diego Blood Bank in your will, or become a sponsor, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that your contribution strengthens our ability to make a difference in our community.

The San Diego Blood Bank Foundation was organized for the sole purpose of raising funds for the life-saving programs and services of the San Diego Blood Bank.

Contributions to the San Diego Blood Bank Foundation are tax deductible for income and estate tax purposes.
