VOLUNTEER DIFFERENCE PROGRAM

Frequently Asked Questions

How does the Volunteer Difference Program work?

Each volunteer has the opportunity to volunteer at a mobile drive, as a health fair representative and as a canteen host. Each time a volunteer donates his/her time they will be awarded points for every hour volunteered. As you reach a certain amount of time donated you step up in levels and receive benefits accordingly.

Do my past volunteer hours apply?

Yes, the volunteer program was launched on August 1, 2006. Your hours were retroactive to January 1, 2007. You were automatically entered into the appropriate Level. NOTE: Hours are based on a calendar year.

Will my points expire?

Yes, after 24 months of inactivity. Points will begin to expire January 2010 for inactive volunteers.

Can I save my points?

Yes, you can accumulate as many points as you like as long as you are an active volunteer.

How can I redeem points?

You can redeem points by contacting Noemí Peña.

If I become a Life Level 4 volunteer do I start out as a Life Level 4 volunteer the next year?

Yes, as long as you maintain Life Level 4 statuses by volunteering 75 hours or more per calendar year. If you do not maintain those hours you will move down a level depending the total of hours volunteered.

Stay tuned for more information on the Volunteer Difference Program in April's issue.
