News & Notes

NEW Volunteer Opportunity!

A new volunteer opportunity is available at the San Diego Blood Bank donor center on Upas Street:
Front Desk Coordinator.

This is a wonderful opportunity for volunteers seeking a regular, early morning shift at the donor center.

Schedule:

Monday—Friday: 7:30—10:30am

Requirements:

- Customer Service oriented
- Personable, friendly and reliable
- Comfortable with phones and public
- Weekly shift

Duties:

1. Unlock the front door. Normally the door is unlocked at 7:45 for donors that arrive early for their 8:00am Apheresis appointments.
2. Check-in and hand out badges to visitors, Apheresis donors, vendors and board members.
3. Call and notify departments when visitors or vendors are on-site.

Contact Noemí Peña for more information or to sign up, 619/400-8202 or npena@sandiegobloodbank.org.

Canteen Guidelines at the Donor Centers

Canteen Host

- Friendly, outgoing, and personable. Must be comfortable interacting with donors at all times
- Welcome, connect and engage with donors
- Serve refreshments and monitor donors for reactions

Canteen—SDBB is moving towards offering the same snacks and beverages at all donor centers and blood drives. Please provide donors with a nice selection of what is available, but limit the supply of snacks displayed on the counter.

Donuts—Coming soon, Hostess Donuts (pkg of 6)! We will offer Chocolate and Powder sugar donuts; however, may cutback on some cookies.

Available Beverages—We are trying to offer a variety of beverages to appeal to most everybody. The following beverages are available at all centers: water, soda (8oz can; Sierra Mist for a non-caffeinated drink) and juice.

Beverages will no longer be displayed on the counter. They are stored in the fridge to keep them nice and cold. Volunteers are to ask donors what they would like to drink and serve the beverage.

It is important that donors keep hydrated after donation. It is ok that donors drink more than one beverage at the center.

Snacks—Offer a variety of snacks to select from but please limit the supply displayed on the counter.
